

Yale Club of Washington, DC Presents: ANTIETAM & GETTYSBURG

June 22 - 26, 2022

Join other Yale Alumni, their friends, and families on a five-day guided tour of the battlefields of Antietam and Gettysburg representing Lee's 1862-1863 northern incursions and the turning point of the Civil War. The trip will include illustrated talks by Yale History PhD and Civil War scholar Brian Matthew Jordan. You will stay in the historic Gettysburg Hotel (www.hotelgettysburg.com), a four-star hotel in the heart of the old town.

The tour begins with a welcome reception and dinner at our hotel. On three successive days, you will visit the battlefields leading to the most pivotal battles in the Civil War and see special historical sites not otherwise open to the general public. Each morning features illustrated lectures describing the day's fighting before we visit the battlefields.

Lecturer

Brian Matthew Jordan, Yale '13 Ph.D., and Associate Professor of History and Chair of the History Department at Sam Houston State University in Huntsville, Texas. Dr. Jordan will provide several morning talks and guide the afternoon battlefield motor coach tours. An expert on the military and political history of the Civil War, Dr. Jordan's scholarship has also explored the trials of homecoming faced by Union soldiers—a topic all too familiar to American society today, as our serving men and women return home from conflict. Most recently, he is the author of Marching Home: Union Veterans and Their Unending Civil War (Liveright/W.W. Norton, 2015), which was a finalist (one of three runners up) for the 2016 Pulitzer Prize in History. His latest book is A Thousand May Fall; Life, Death and Survival in the Union Army. He has earned accolades for his work in the Washington Post and Wall Street Journal.

Thursday, June 23, 2022 The Bloodiest Day: Antietam

After breakfast, we will gather in the classroom for a lecture to set your understanding of the war’s early years—and the factors that led General Robert E. Lee’s army to splash across the Potomac in the fall of 1862. Then board our luxury motorcoach for a beautiful drive into Maryland. We will visit Antietam, the site of the titanic showdown that remains the bloodiest day in American history with 23,000 casualties. The tour will involve a mixture of coach travel and walking, so wear comfortable shoes. The coach returns to the hotel about 6:00 pm, giving you plenty of time to freshen up before a seated dinner at the hotel. The rest of the evening is at your disposal.

Responsibility:

The Yale Club of Washington, D.C. (hereafter called the "Program Sponsor") are responsible only for assisting in making arrangements with respect to all transportation, hotels and other matters of reservations and tour operations and they do not represent or act as agent for transportation carriers, hotels and other suppliers or services connected with this tour. The Program Sponsor assumes no responsibility for loss, damage, injury, accident, delay or other irregularity, expense or delays arising from sickness, diseases, pilferage, labor disputes, machinery breakdown, quarantine, government restraints, war, acts of terrorism, weather conditions or such other causes. All such losses or expenses shall be borne by the tour participant. Baggage and personal effects are the sole responsibility of the owners at all times. It is understood that tickets when issued shall constitute the sole contract between the passenger and carrier concerned. All services are subject to the laws of the state and country in which they are rendered.

Dates, schedules, program details, and costs are given based on information available and currently in force and are subject to change and revision. As a condition to acceptance of any application, each applicant represents that he or she has read the schedule of activities for this tour and recognizes and accepts any risks thereof and hereby agrees for and on behalf of himself or herself and his or her heirs, executors and administrators to abide by the conditions set forth above, and to release and hold harmless the Program Sponsor and its directors, governing board members, officers, agents, licenses, representatives, heirs, executors, administrators, successors, and assigns from any and all liability, claims and demands, however caused, for delays, damages, loss, illness, injury or death, occurring in relation to the tour, and for loss of or damage to his or her property, however occurring, in relation to the tour. Liability for luggage is strictly limited, and participants are urged to take necessary insurance for their protection.

If, due to weather or other uncontrollable factors, you are required to spend an additional night(s), each participant will be responsible for his or her own hotel, transfers and meal costs.

The Program Sponsor reserves the right to change the itinerary or trip features at any time and for any reason with or without notice, and shall not be liable for any such changes. All fares, as well as hours of arrival and departure, special programs and guest lecture series (if applicable), are subject to change without prior notice. The Program Sponsor shall not be required to refund any portion of the program price or make any other compensation under these circumstances. The Program Sponsor is not responsible for costs resulting from transportation and / or itinerary changes to and from the tour.

Arbitration:

In the event that a dispute arises between a participant and the Yale Club of Washington, D.C. or any other organizers of the trip, the following terms will apply: (a) the dispute will be settled by binding arbitration administered by the American Arbitration Association in Washington, D.C.; (b) the dispute will be governed by District of Columbia law; (c) the maximum amount of recovery to which a participant shall be entitled under any and all circumstances will be the sum of all monies actually received from the participant by the Yale Club of Washington, D.C. The participant agrees that this is a fair and reasonable limitation on the damages, of any type whatsoever, that a participant may suffer.

Agreement to Terms:

Payment by tour participant(s) indicates acceptance of the above terms and conditions.
